EDMONTON, ALBERTA, MONDAY, DECEMBER 24TH, 1894.

SEMI-WEEKLY, 4 PAGES.

TELEGRAPHIC.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 24th.

Ex-Governor Royal is now editor of La Minerve.

Lord Randolph Churchill has broken down, he has softening of the brain.

A little boy named Roland Brydon was burned to death near Portage la Prairie.

Dreadful gales are blowing in the British Islands and much damage has been done. By a railway accident to the Manchester express train, 15 were killed and fifty injured.

The Irish have notified the liberals that they cannot be expected to continue their undivided support in the commons. The liberals are alarmed.

J. K. Strachan secretary treasurer of the Winnipeg industrial exhibition, has been suspended pending an investigation into alleged irregularities.

LOCAL.

MERRY Christmas.

The shortest day is past.

Mrs. and Miss Foster left on Friday's train on a visit to Toronto.

Malcolm McKinnon has purchased an interest in the Royal hotel, Calgary.

It is rumored that the foot race between Monow and Allan arranged for to-morrow, is off.

The electric light will be on to-night, and is promised to be brighter and better than ever.

R. Secord purchased a $900 lot of fur from C. Johnson, trader at the Landing on Saturday.

Midnight mass at St. Joachim's, Edmonton and the cathedral, St. Albert, to-night, Christmas eve.

Mrs. Ross, of Saddle Lake, is in town visiting her daughter Mrs. S. S. Taylor, Miss Ross accompanies her.

Grain deliveries continue brisk, oats are 22c for first class feed quality and 23c for milling quality. Barley 23c for feed to 25c for malting. Wheat 35c to 45c.

The stable belonging to Geo. Hutton, in rear of his late residence on Fraser avenue, was removed on Thursday last to the rear of his new warehouse, Jasper avenue, by S. F. McCauley.

The present winter since the first snow fall has been as fine as heart could desire. Clear, calm, always moderate and sometimes mild, and still enough snow for sleighing. Ideal winter weather.

Butter is more plentiful than usual at this time of the year and is worth 25c to the farmers. Eggs are scarce at 30c. Large quantities have been imported recently to supply the demand.

The Winnipeg Commercial's Vancouver correspondent reports on December 9th: Manitoba oats per ton $25, Edmonton district oats $24, Washington State oats $24, local oats $23, Washington State wheat $20.50.

Mr. Middleton, of Calgary formerly in the employ of the Sir Lester Kaye Company, visited Edmonton last week and proposes to start business here. He has leased the store lately occupied by W. Johnston Walker.

D. L. Clunk, Indian agent at Battle River, is in town and reports matters generally prosperous amongst the Indians there. The agency water power grist mill on Battle river is running full time and is doing good work.

The small building next door east of the Bulletin office, at one time occupied as a barber shop, was removed last week to a lot west of Hutton's new implement warehouse, south side of Jasper avenue, owned by F. Steele of Winnipeg. The work was done by McPherson Bros.

Rev. C. H. Andrus, M. A., of Cambridge, England, has been appointed by the Bishop of Saskatchewan and Calgary as incumbent of Wetaskiwin, and missionary from Otakawakan to Holbema on the C. P. R. and adjacent settlements. A church will be erected in Wetaskiwin in the spring.

Several openings in the ice of the river still remain in the stretch from Ross' point to the electric light station. This covers the lower site of the proposed bridge. Just here it may not be out of place to remark that one point in favor of the lower site is that it is in a moderately long and straight stretch of the river, where the ice does not jam in either fall or spring; while at the upper site, being just above the point around which the river takes a sharp bend, the ice jams both in spring and fall worse than at any other place for miles up or down. This is a fact of which the government engineers are probably not aware.

Messrs. D. W. Davis, M. P., and John Cameron, president of the board of trade, visited St. Albert on Wednesday for the purpose of ascertaining the feeling there in regard to the site of the proposed traffic bridge. H. W. McKenney, one of the leading merchants of St. Albert, favored a site further up the river still than the proposed upper site, but was willing to accept the site desired by the town of Edmonton if the mission authorities and other interests at St. Albert would do so. Bishop Grandin said that he strongly desired the building of a bridge, and that if the government was satisfied that the lower site was the best in the interests of the whole country he would willingly accept that site.

The South Edmonton News has taken a step in advance, and issues two editions a week, both of the same date however. In last week's number, speaking of the bridge site, it mentions John McDougall and Sir John McDougall as approving of the upper site for the bridge. In its revised edition it speaks of John McDougall and Rev. John McDougall. As there is an evident desire to convey the impression that John A. McDougall, merchant of Edmonton, approves of the upper site for the bridge the Bulletin interviewed him on the subject and is authorized to say that he had no communication with Mr. Anderson, land agent, on the bridge question for months past and that he strongly favors the lower site as being the proper one and in the best interests of town and country.

Edmonton public schools open again on Wednesday, Jan. 2nd.

Rev. C. E. Somerset of White Whale lake, was in town last week.

The Christmas number of the War Cry is accompanied by a very fine engraving, "Christ raising the dead."

Rev. D. G. McQueen returned on Thursday's train from a visit to Wetaskiwin and Lacombe, on church business.

Mr. W. JOHNSTONE WALKER left on Friday's train for England Scotland and South Africa. He will return next fall.

ENTERTAINMENTS in connection with the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday schools, take place in the respective churches this evening.

Miss TIMNEY has been re-engaged as teacher of Horse Hills public school district, and the school will be re-opened in January as a yearly school.

F. DE JOURNAL, who was in the flour and feed business at Red Deer and has sold out there, was in town last week. He intends removing to Edmonton shortly.

MR. ALGER, father of Mrs. H. A. Finch, has leased R. Kelly's farm north of the Sturgeon, and has removed with his family from Pine creek, south of Calgary.

The Calgary Tribune of a recent issue had a poetic tribute to the late Donald McLeod, written by Jas. Reilly of Calgary; very creditable in spirit and in composition.

STONE is being hauled for the foundation of a brick building to be erected in the spring by the Edmonton Saddlery Company on the corner of Nemayo and Jasper avenues.

There will be services on Xmas. Day in all Saints Church, at 8.30 and 11 a. m. The choir has prepared special music for the festival. Service will be held in South Edmonton at 3 p. m.

SATURDAY Night of a recent issue had a short story by Charles Lewis Shaw, the scene of which was laid at Edmonton. The title was, "How we won Riviere Qui Barre for the government candidate." It is written in Charlie's best style and touches with quite his usual lightness on facts.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Masonic lodge on Tuesday night last, H. C. Taylor was elected W. M.; R. B. Ferguson, S. W.; Dr. Braithwaite, J. W.; J. A. McDougall, Treas.; Jas. McDonald, Secretary; The installation will take place at 4 p. m. on Thursday next the 27th.

A. M. CAMPBELL, who has been principal of the Edmonton public schools for the past two years, leaves for Winnipeg on to-morrow's train, accompanied by Mrs. Campbell. Mr. Campbell was an enthusiastic and efficient teacher and a desirable citizen. His departure and that of Mrs. Campbell will be generally regretted.

A Hamilton dispatch says: that A. H. Heming, an artist of that city, with Casper W. Whitney, a well known sporting writer, will leave on December 22nd, on a trip 1000 miles north of Edmonton by dog train. They go to prepare articles for Harper's Magazine, on musk ox hunting and wood buffalo.

W. J. G. DICKSON, commission merchant, South Edmonton, who has been shipping white oats to Brackman & Ker of New Westminster for milling purposes, has received word that his shipments have been very satisfactory and that an unlimited quantity is wanted. Mr. Dickson has also made a shipment of malting barley and is making arrangements to ship dressed beef, pork, mutton, game and butter.

On Wednesday night John Sewell, a half-breed of Red river, who has been leading an idle life in town for some months past, living in a tent near the H. B. fort, broke into J. A. McDougall's warehouse and stole a firkin of butter, some tea and some candies. On Thursday he was arrested, by the mounted police; on Friday he was brought before Judge Rouleau, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years in jail. This is quick work, and a full share of the credit is due to the prompt and intelligent action of the mounted police, of the town detachment.

HOCKEY.

In the match to be played at 2.30 p. m. to-morrow on the Thistle hockey rink on the river, between the Thistles here, and the Northwest mounted police team from Fort Saskatchewan, the following are the players who will represent Edmonton, J. A. Boyle, goal; W. T. Henry, point; J. Saunders, cover point; Inspt. Snyder, J. R. Fulton, F. M. Robertson, and C. S. W. Bridges, forwards.

COMMUNICATION.

EDITOR BULLETIN:

Will you please insert the following few words viz:

A misunderstanding seems to exist in reference to a motion of which I am the proposer. Having asked in council meeting whether the town had a clear title to the right of way sixteen feet wide and running from the lane back of Jasper avenue to the grade on the hill, given by Mayor McCauley to the town. Mayor McCauley answered no, but that on payment of the sum of two hundred dollars he would remove or cause to be removed all obstructions now thereon and give a clear title for said right of way.

It was understood that the above sum was to be paid for removing said obstructions and not in payment of the land which was given free by Mr. McCauley; and believing that the payment of that sum would be less costly than another arbitration case, I proposed the motion in the sole interest of the town, and for the purpose of closing a business transaction that had been commenced by this council. This is the only communication I intend to make through the press on this matter.

Yours truly,

J. H. PICARD.

The Calgary Tribune mentions that an irrigation district is being formed in the Spring bank settlement, south of Calgary, under the provisions of the Northwest irrigation ordinance. This ordinance permits the bonding of lands within a fixed area to raise money for irrigation works.

REPLY.

In response to the above largely signed requisition representing so large an interest in the Town of Edmonton, I have much pleasure in offering myself as a candidate for the position of Mayor. I have not any ulterior motive, any idea of seeking the position, and it is only in response to the above requisition and numerous assurances of support that I have consented to do so.

I do not base my claims for support on the assurance that if elected I will then commence to take an interest in the welfare of Edmonton, but from the fact that for the past sixteen years I have taken an active part in all that has been done to advance the best interests of the town. If elected I shall consider myself specially bound to devote still more time and energy to the good of Edmonton.

I consider the most important question of the coming year is that of the bridge, and no effort should be spared to have it placed at the lower crossing. No important public works are required and no large expenditure of money is necessary. The taxes are now high and an effort should be made to reduce them by strict economy and no unnecessary expenditures, as I fully realize the injury that high taxes do to town.

Now Gentlemen and Electors of Edmonton, the final decision rests with you on election day. If you consider that I am better entitled to the position than any one else offering, I shall be pleased to have your votes and influence, and if elected shall endeavor to fill the position with honor to myself and credit to the town.

Yours Respectfully,

JOHN A. McDOUGALL.

Xmas Presents in Furniture!

When giving a Xmas Present why not give something useful, durable and beautiful? If it's for the children give them a Rocking Chair or Rocking Horse. If its for your wife what would be more fitting or more acceptable than a nice Bedroom Suite. We can give you a good one with bevel edge mirror for $20.00. If that is too expensive we can show you a hundred things at less cost. Any one of them would be an addition to your home comfort for years to come. We have just opened up a car of New Goods and will help you to choose a present according to the price you wish to pay, from $1.00 up.

FRANK OLIVER, — PROPRIETOR.
EDMONTON BULLETIN, DECEMBER 24TH, 1894.

THE MAYOROLTY.
The present is the first occasion since the incorporation of Edmonton that there has been a contest for the position of mayor. As will be seen by this issue, two candidates are definitely in the field. It would not be complimentary to the citizens if so important an office as that of mayor of the metropolis of the north should go begging, or that there should be no emulation as to who should fill it. An election contest is troublesome and costly, but it is in the progress of such contests that questions of importance are threshed out and issues decided according to the will or wisdom of the majority. In this case the BULLETIN has no hesitation in giving its support to the candidacy of Mr. McDougall, on the grounds of his business interests, his well known capabilities and his previous services. The office of mayor is one of honor as well as of important duty, and it is a proper and seemingly thing that the honor should be attained by promotion from amongst those who have already served the municipality, rather than that good service should go unrewarded and the hope of promotion to the office of mayor be withdrawn from the honorable inducements to citizens to serve as councillors. It is altogether that the presiding and executive officer of the council should be familiar with its work and business as one who has been a member is, and as one who has not been a member is not. That Mr. McDougall is thoroughly competent and personally qualified to fill the position with credit to himself and the town every citizen will agree, and that he will endeavor to do so to the best of his ability, the fact that his business and personal interests are all here and have been for many years, is a sufficient guarantee.

WETASKIWIN.
The time honored and congregational service of the Anglican Episcopal church, was inaugurated in Wetaskiwin on Dec. 9th, in the west room attached to the new school house. It had not been very widely made known owing to the incompleteness of the furniture and fittings, which however, is now remedied. A congregation of about 50 in a township of less than 200 persons augurs well for the future of the church in a neighborhood where so many foreigners have settled. The Roman Catholics and Methodists have already erected their churches and a Presbyterian church has just been opened. Accommodation is provided in the Anglican service for 120. Arrangements are in progress for erecting a church in the spring of 1895. The rapid growth of the population around warrants the belief that all these churches will be needed and occupied. Mr. Smith kindly presided at the organ in the absence of Mrs. Lisle from illness, who had volunteered to do so. The preacher was the Rev. C. H. Andras M. A., Cambridge, lately appointed by the Bishop to the incumbency and mission centre of Wetaskiwin, the subject, "The efficiency of a church," Mr. Andras was lately dean and professor in the western university, Ont., and resided as chaplain many years in Russia and is conversant with the French, German, Russian and Danish tongues, a necessary accomplishment in such a polyglot district.

HORSE HILLS.
A Christmas tree entertainment in connection with Horse Hills Sunday school, was held in the public school house on Friday evening last. There was a large attendance, about 150 people being present. W. Clark was chairman. An excellent tea was served at 6 o'clock, and afterwards a programme of songs, recitations, dialogues and instrumental music was rendered, in which many of the children and their grown up friends took part. The latter included Messrs. McCallum and W. Mearon, violins, Mr. George, banjo, Miss Birdie McKay, whistle. Mrs. Plumley and her brother, Mr. George sang several duets. Miss Jennie McLay, Misses Annie and Kate Clark, Miss Duguid and Miss Eliza Corbett gave a dialogue in character. The children of the school acquitted themselves most creditably in their various songs and recitations, reflecting great credit on themselves and the superintendent Miss Timney, who is also teacher of the day school. The Sunday school numbers over 40 on the roll.

CHURCH DEDICATION.
The Presbyterian church at Wetaskiwin was dedicated on Sunday, December 16th. The morning service was conducted by Rev. D. G. McQueen of Edmonton, the afternoon service by Rev. Mr. Bowring Methodist minister at Wetaskiwin; and the evening service by Rev. D. G. McQueen of Edmonton. The attendance was good at all three services.

On Monday evening the ordination of the Rev. Jas. Morrow as minister of the church, took place. Rev. D. Spear of Innisfail acted as moderator. The ordination was made by Rev. John Fernie of Lacombe, Rev. D. G. McQueen addressed the minister and Rev. Mr. Spear the congregation on their respective duties.

The church is 24x40, frame, plastered inside and cost $825. There will not be more than $150 of debt against the building.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.
On Friday afternoon at the close of the usual concert Miss Lindsay the teacher of the Fraser avenue primary school was presented with the following address, accompanied by a silver napkin ring and gold souvenir spoon.

DEAR MISS LINDSAY:—We your pupils knowing that you intend leaving us very soon, cannot allow you to go away without assuring you that we are sensible of the great loss we will sustain in losing you as our dear teacher and friend. Will you kindly accept this gift as a token of our esteem, and we would ask you sometimes to think of your pupils in Edmonton who loved you so very much and were so sorry to part with you. May God bring you safely to your home in Ontario; and hoping we may meet again we all heartily join in wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Sung on behalf of the pupils, Mabel Richardson, Gracie Walker, Sissy Walker. Edmonton, 21st Dec., 1894.

CLOSE OF SCHOOL.

On Friday the Edmonton public school closed for the Christmas holidays. In the afternoon a concert was given in the principal's room in which the pupils of that and of the primary department took part, and over which Mr. Campbell presided. A goodly number of grown up relatives of the children were present. The following programme was rendered: Recitation, "I'm a hurried child," Ethel Richardson; recitation, "When I'm a man," Louis Dorais; Dialogue, "Mrs. Jones takes tea with Mrs. Brooke," Clara Lander and Maud McCauley; recitation, "Which one was left?" Rose Dunlop; song, "Blondine Dorais," recitation, "The Bumble Bee," Eleanor Taylor; recitation in concert, "A charge from the Infantry," Infant class; song, Louis Dorais; recitation, "Waiting for the train," Clara Oliver; song, "The Cobbler," five little girls; dialogue, "The everlasting talker," Maggie McCauley and others; reading Edith Bellamy; pausy chorus, by six girls; football song, by the boys. The following address from the school football club was read by Ralph Bellamy:

EDMONTON, Dec. 21st, 1894.

To Mr. A. M. CAMPBELL,

DEAR TEACHER.—On the occasion of your leaving us to settle in a distant home, we the members of the Edmonton public school football club ask you to accept this address as a slight token of the respect and esteem in which you are held by our club. You have faithfully labored among us during the past two years, and have taken every interest in our improvement, both mental and physical. It was upon your suggestion that this club was formed; and ever since its organization you have helped it along in every way possible. Now as you are departing from our midst may God's richest blessing attend you; and hoping you may enjoy much happiness in your future home, we in behalf of the club join in wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. R. V. Bellamy, president, H. D. Cameron, captain, R. A. F. Macdonald sec.-treas., A. Brunelle, W. Graham, C. Richardson.

The following address was then read by R. A. F. Macdonald:

Mr. A. M. CAMPBELL,

DEAR TEACHER.—As you are about to leave us and before we say good bye we desire to express our earnest appreciation of your efforts on our behalf as teacher and also our respect and esteem for you as a friend. We feel that you have not merely labored for the time being in the routine of school work, but that you have thrown into that routine your sympathy and a deep interest in our future, endeavoring to lay the foundations of our life work broad and deep. We trust that you will not be disappointed in us as the years go by. We will not soon forget you, and that you might at times spare us a thought we present you with this small token of regard hoping that the future has for you all happiness and success in your profession. We unite in wishing you and Mrs. Campbell a safe and pleasant journey homeward and all the compliments and joys of Christmas tide.

EDMONTON, Dec. 21st, 1894.

Signed on behalf of the school,

MARY HEIMICK,

ROBERT A. F. MACDONALD.

Accompanying the address was a silver cup and saucer on which Mr. Campbell's initials were engraved, and which was presented by Miss Mary Heimick.

A concert was also held by the pupils of the intermediate department, presided over by Mr. Welbourn, at which a programme was rendered as follows. Address by the chairman; chorus, "Twilight is stealing," school; recitation, Mary McCauley; duet, the Misses Dorais; reading, Dora Oliver; quartette, "Sleighing Song," by four girls; recitation, Bertie McCauley; recitation, Elvira McKernan; trio, the Misses McCauley; reading, Hattie Oliver; recitation, Marion Welbourn; vacation song, by the school; reading, Mary Tough; song, Ernest and Marion Welbourn; reading, Mabel McCauley. The following address was read by Dora Oliver:

EDMONTON, Dec. 21st, 1894.

MR. WELBOURN.

DEAR TEACHER.—It is with pleasure that we the pupils of your room learn that you are to remain with us for another term, we therefore take great pleasure in presenting you with this small Christmas present as a token of the esteem and respect in which you are held by the scholars of this room, we hope that the season we are about to enter upon will be crowned with every success both for yourself and school.

Signed on behalf of the school, Mary Tough, Hattie Oliver, Mabel McCauley, John McDougall, Eva Foster.

The presentation of a crystal and silver fruit dish was made by Mary Tough. The proceedings were closed with the hymn "God be with you till we meet again," by the school.

FORT SASKATCHEWAN, ALBERTA.

The whole country side echoes the sentiments expressed by the Edmonton board of trade, in its answer of 10th instant, to Mr. Kerr of the C. P. R., re-freight rates. While the inland freight rate is high, it does not tell so hard on the settler as the export rate on our products. The allusion made as to Northern Alberta's occupying a similar position as between landlord and tenant is good. It is a well known fact that had the Dominion government used some kind of discretion in its donation of railway lands, Northern Alberta would not have been in its present unfortunate position, but would have had a direct market both east and west, as another railway company were prepared to build through it in 1889-90. Canada is crying out for a larger population, but it only requires a few more blunders in statesmanship of this kind, to throw the whole Dominion back for years. If the liberal party comes into power, all it has to do is to donate the rest of our northern country—the great Peace and Mackenzie river districts, with their valuable lands, fur, fish and minerals of every description, to the Canadian Pacific Railway, in exchange for political favors. Judging from the company's supposed organ, the Winnipeg "Free Press," the C. P. R. must want something from the liberal party, and a mere bagatelle of millions of acres of land and millions of dollars worth of minerals &c., and another monopoly would not come amiss, even if our fair Dominion is the loser. This is a philanthropic age.

Queen vs Alexis, a Cree Indian of White fish lake, was charged with damaging a bull and a cow by shooting them. He pleaded "not guilty" and was remanded for trial at the next visit of the judge, probably in February.

ST. ALBERT RECOUNT.

The recount of the votes cast in certain polling places of the electoral district of St. Albert at the recent election, which was demanded on behalf of Mr. Prince, was commenced on Friday forenoon in Robertson hall, by Judge Rouleau. Mr. Prince appeared for himself, assisted by Mr. Bown, and S.S. Taylor Q.C. for Mr. Maloney. The polling places under question were No. 2, Morinville; No. 4, Glangarry; No. 5, Poplar lake; No. 6, Sturgeon; and No. 8, Lake St. Ann.

The Morinville ballot box was opened first and 89 ballots found in it. This tallied with the poll book as to the number of votes actually cast. Two more names appeared on the poll book, but the men when challenged had refused to declare and therefore did not vote. The count of the ballots was Prince 39, Maloney 49, spoiled, by being marked both blue and red. This agreed with the count made by the deputy returning officer, and the returning officer. Regarding the ballot rejected as spoiled, the judge held that the color and not the form of the mark on the ballot paper decided for whom it was cast, and that in this case as the ballot was marked in both colors it was impossible to decide for whom it was intended to be counted, although the blue mark was plainly in the form of an "X" as directed in the ordinance, while the red mark was only a single bar.

Glangarry, No. 4, was opened next. The poll book showed that 49 persons had voted and the box contained 49 ballots. Of these Prince received 10 and Maloney 39. This agreed with the count by the deputy returning officer, but differed from that of the returning officer by 2, he having rejected two ballots marked with blue; one because the word Maloney was written on it and the other because it was marked with only a blue bar and not an "X." As previously ruled the judge held that color and not form decided the ballot and therefore these two were counted for Maloney.

Poplar lake was dealt with next. The poll book showed 52 votes cast and the box contained 52 ballots. Fifty-three names were on the poll book, but one had been challenged and had refused to vote. The count was, Prince 10, Maloney 42. This agreed with the count by the deputy returning officer and by the returning officer.

Sturgeon river No. 6. The poll book showed 85 votes cast and the box contained 85 ballots. The count was, Prince 9, Maloney 76. This agreed with the count by the deputy returning officer and the returning officer.

Lake St. Ann, No. 8. The poll book showed 42 votes and the box contained 42 ballots. The count was, Prince 14, Maloney 28. This count differed from that of the returning officer who had rejected as spoiled one ballot which had been marked on the outside with red.

The total change made by the recount in the five polling divisions was to add one vote to Prince and two to Maloney.

Evidence is being taken to-day as to the conduct of the polls. If it can be shown that any poll was irregularly conducted so as to affect the vote, the judge may declare the poll for that division in valid and order a new vote to be taken in that polling division.

Stockholders of the Commercial bank of Manitoba, are being called upon to pay up on their double liability on their stock.

In the Algoma election case, Savage, opposition was unsatisfied. This gives Mowat a chance for another supporter.
